ABOUT THE 20th EURAM CONFERENCE

About the European Academy of Management (EURAM)

The European Academy of Management (EURAM) is a professional community of engaged management scholars and reflective practitioners - open, inclusive, international and cross-cultural.

EURAM places a strong emphasis on multidisciplinary theoretical perspectives and methodological pluralism, and promotes critical examinations of the historical and philosophical roots of management theory and praxis.

EURAM aims to enhance the quality of research, improve its relevance for responsible and effective practice, and contribute to the social and political discourse on management. EURAM is recognized as the academic association of management in Europe, becoming a reference for management scholars. EURAM has around 1400 members per year.

EURAM Annual Conference

Every year, the EURAM annual conference takes place in a different city in Europe in June. The Doctoral Colloquium precedes each conference.

A university or scientific institution in Europe hosts the Annual Conference, which is a strategic way of achieving EURAM’s objectives. Specifically, this helps in the continued evolution of an open, inclusive, international and cross-cultural EURAM community of engaged scholars. As such, EURAM supports scholars in designing, producing and disseminating higher quality and impactful research at each stage of their career. Moreover, it influences the development of management education and provides platforms and networks for the dialogue between scholars, reflective practitioners, and policy makers.

The EURAM Conference has been held in Lisbon (Portugal), Reykjavik (Iceland), Glasgow (Scotland), Paris (France), Warsaw (Poland), Valencia (Spain), Istanbul (Turkey), Rotterdam (The Netherlands), Tallinn (Estonia), Rome (Italy), Liverpool (UK), Ljubljana (Slovenia), Paris (France), Oslo (Norway), Munich (Germany), St Andrews (Scotland), Milan, (Italy), Stockholm (Sweden) and Barcelona (Spain).
Dublin was founded by Vikings during the 9th Century, who established a key maritime centre. The city and port continued to prosper over the centuries and with English dominance came the city's attractive 17th Century architecture. By the 18th Century, Dublin was second only to London as one of the largest cities of the British Empire. However by the start of the 20th Century, Dublin entered a long decline, which lasted until the economic turn around of the 1980s saw the Celtic Tiger breathe new life into Ireland's capital.

Dublin is a thriving cultural centre and boasts a great literary legacy with many luminaries of Irish literature such as Joyce, Shaw, Yeats, Wilde, Kavanagh and Beckett, being associated with the city.

Dublin's entertainments are legendary, from the boozy delights of the Guinness Storehouse and Temple Bar to more cultured nights at the theatre or dining in one of the city's fine eateries including five 'one Michelin star' restaurants and one two star eatery.
Conference Theme: The Business of Now: the future starts here

In the 21st century environment, university business research has been very effective in highlighting the issues that need to be addressed by management ranging from disruptive technologies; to potential environmental catastrophe; to social inclusion; to ethical business and ultimately to the stainability of free markets and their ability to deliver the social and economic goals that were assumed integral to the liberal capitalist system of the last Century. Business researchers have a key role to play here as managers turn to them both for thought leadership and for the latest research findings to guide leaders to make timely decisions to overcome these challenges facing business and society.

To this end, we are in the ‘Business of Now’ responding to the immediacy required by business and society. We need to help solve the managerial tension between the present and future. Indeed, the Business of Now is a request from future generations to help guide the managers and leaders of today to: address climate change before it is too late; to be able to turn the futuristic visions of markets and new technologies into practical options for the business of today which will provide a platform for the future which best serves society; to make decisions today that will not just respond to market forces but shape them so that they serve business and society in a more inclusive and sustaining manner; and ultimately to provide the template for business serving intergenerational stakeholders where managers create, rather than plunder the wealth and opportunities of future generations.

So we are at a pivotal point in our history in terms of needing to make urgent decisions to safeguard the environment. We also need to set a blueprint for business management that will enable society to benefit from technological progress and free markets. In keeping with earlier conference themes concerned with the relevance of research for business, the EURAM 2020 conference seeks to propel, nurture and disseminate research which addresses the Business of Now!

It is timely that we are addressing an inter-generational research topic in 2020 when EURAM is celebrating its 20th anniversary and so nearly embracing a full generation of management scholars. So join us in Trinity Business School’s new state of the art building on Trinity College, Dublin’s 400 year old stunning campus, at the centre of the vibrant European City of Dublin.

Other Information

Venue information - The exhibition floor plan will also be circulated around April 2020. The exhibition area will be located at the Trinity Business School, close to the coffee break area: delegates going to the plenary sessions and the meeting rooms will pass the exhibition space.

Logistics - Instructions on where to send the display items will be sent to you upon receipt and confirmation of your booking form. Any materials you wish to be returned must be sent back by your organisation.

EURAM will provide on its website information useful to exhibitors regarding logistics issues (e.g. administrative requirements for shipments and delivery processes).

Allocation process for exhibitor space - Exhibitors who also sponsor EURAM will have priority in selecting their space. The remaining spaces will then be open to all other exhibitors. The key contact in your organisation will be notified by email when the allocation process for exhibitor space is open. The space allocation will operate on a first-come basis.

“Books Only” option - Exhibits will be offered to exhibitors who would like to have books and other titles on display but are unable to attend the Annual Conference. The cost is €125 per title with a maximum of five titles allowed per publisher/author. You may send copies to give away, or “Display Only” copies. You may send as many order forms, brochures, and/or catalogues as necessary. Order forms must include a fax number where attendees can send filled out forms. EURAM is not responsible for returning completed order forms. Instructions on where to send the materials will be sent to you once your payment is processed. We will ensure as best as possible that an ample supply is available during exhibition hours. At the end of the Annual Conference, the display books will be donated to charity. If you require items to be returned, you must provide shipping supplies and instructions with your materials. EURAM is not responsible for the loss or damage of materials.
Exhibitor badges - The payment for each exhibitor stand will include two complimentary passes for stand managers. Additional badges for stand managers may be purchased for 50€ each. Exhibitor registration will be onsite at the main conference registration desk. Exhibitor badges will be provided at that time. Exhibitor representatives will not be permitted to enter the exhibition area without a valid exhibitor badge. Exhibitor personnel are welcome to attend all EURAM sessions as a "regular" attendee except in cases where there are additional charges, e.g. get together activities, social dinners, gala dinner.

Raffles - A great way to promote exhibitors and to attract delegates to come to the exhibits area is to hold daily raffles during the coffee breaks. Exhibitors are encouraged to donate prizes/gifts to be raffled off during those times.

Installation and dismantling of Exhibitor Space - Exhibitors may set up their display stands on Tuesday 9 June 2020 from 14:00 pm. All exhibitor stands must be dismantled on Friday 12 June 2020 from 16:30 onwards.

However, EURAM specifically disclaims any and all liability. Exhibitors assume all responsibility and liability for their property, personnel, and employees. Exhibitors should insure their exhibits and display materials.

Purpose Clause - EURAM reserves the exclusive right to determine the relevance of the organisation’s product and refuse a prospective exhibitor the right to exhibit. The organisation has to offer a product or service of specific value to EURAM members.

Payment - Once you have made a booking, you will be issued an invoice for the full amount. Full payment will be required within 30 days and in any case always before the Conference starting day (10 June 2020).

Cancellation Policy - All cancellations must be made in writing to EURAM. EURAM shall retain:
- 50% of the exhibitor fee if cancellation is received less than one month prior to the Conference

EURAM assumes no responsibility for having included the name and information of the cancelled exhibitor in the Conference Programme or any other materials. EURAM also reserves the right to amend the exhibitor stand plan if required by the host venue for logistical or safety reasons. The exhibition area will be based in the main breakout area.
where the coffee breaks are served, thus being in the centre of the Conference’s socialising and networking activities and will also ensure a good level of footfall and delegate engagement throughout the event.
